“Team BZB has their hand on the pulse in the Baltimore-Washington markets. For the past four seasons, the team has coordinated my community outreach & media campaign. They always deliver what I need, when I need it. The Circus is always sold out in these markets, partly due to Team BZB’s efforts; I look forward to working with Team BZB next season!”

“As the former Director of the D.C. Housing and Community Development and Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, I have worked with Ms. Britton on over 40 public relations and special event projects. She team-builds well, plans thoroughly and delivers each time. Juanita has an exceptional skill to work extremely well under pressure and during crisis situations. She represented me, the Mayor, and the citizens of the District of Columbia with unique style and grace. I look forward to continued success on collaborative projects in the future.”

— Stanley Jackson, Acting President —University of the District of Columbia

“Juanita came highly recommended to us from the Chamber of Commerce to chair our Business Committee. Since her induction to our Board, she has produced several successful business and marketing outreach campaigns, that have led to local and national recognition from the D.C. Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts. Team BZB also has a special skill in “guerilla marketing” that captivated the attention of our target audience!”
